

Bio
Antonio ("Tony") Parham

As Vice President of Innovation & Strategy for the Fidelity Center for Applied Technology ("FCAT") and Fidelity Labs, Tony has deployed new tools and techniques for innovation while instilling "innovation DNA" in Fidelity staff. He has also co-designed the incubators process for potential new offerings, managed the Fidelity Patents Program and serves as an entrepreneur-in-residence to identify new business opportunities.

FCAT (pronounced like "F"- "CAT") and Fidelity Labs are business units within Fidelity Investments, a leading financial service company which shares our financial expertise to help people live the lives they want. As of September 2019, Fidelity had $7.4 trillion in assets under administration, including managed assets of $2.7 trillion. Fidelity focuses on meeting the unique needs of a diverse set of customers: helping 26 million people invest their own life savings, 20,000 businesses to manage their employee benefit programs, and providing 13,000 advisory firms with technology solutions to invest their own clients' money. Privately held for over 70 years, Fidelity employs 40,000+ associates who are focused on the long-term success of its customers.

Tony is a seasoned executive, with a track record of leading high-profile initiatives. He is a strategic planner and self-starter, proficient at business plan creation, partnership development, new venture creation, assembling high performance teams, managing extended virtual teams and program management. He has over 30 years' experience of business and technology leadership across a wide range of business sizes, from startups to large enterprises. He has worked for or consulted to a variety of renowned corporations, including: Analysis Group, AT&T, Bell Telephone Laboratories, Clintara, CrossTech Ventures, Harte-Hanks, Hewlett-Packard, IBM, Lotus Development Corporation, Mattapan Community Health Center, Microsoft Corporation, New Covenant, New Marketing Labs, Quantum Associates, The Pulse Network and TKG Management Consulting.

Tony has served as Government Innovation Officer (GIO) for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, advising the Governor, Secretary for Administration and Finance, executive branch leaders and other stakeholders on identifying, funding and managing execution of high-impact, business-transformation projects. The Commonwealth of Massachusetts state government, at the time, was a $36B+ entity with 141 agencies and 67,000 employees across the Executive Branch. As the first Chief Innovation Officer for the Commonwealth, the GIO was accountable for increasing internal government efficiencies and for the improved experience of outside stakeholders such as residents, businesses and local governments. Key GIO accomplishments are described in the GIO's annual reports for 2013 and 2014.

Educated at MIT (B.S. in Computer Science and M.S. in Management from the MIT Sloan School of Management) and the University of Southern California (M.S. in Computer Science), Tony's career has spanned the private, not-for-profit, and public sectors.
